Sede evento

Arsenali Medicei

Lungarno Ranieri Simonelli, 16, 56126 Pisa

The Pisa Muscle Award 2025 Third Edition is designed to present and discuss the pathogenic mechanisms of muscle degeneration in different forms of neuromuscular diseases and the role of inflammation, in order to study new biomarkers of disease and identify new potential therapeutic targets. The event brings together leading researchers and clinicians to share their findings and explore new avenues for various muscular disorders. The goal is to foster collaboration and inspire innovative approaches to improve networking and collaborative studies.
